NARRATIVE:

Benjamin Coronado is a documented sex offender and has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include sexual penetration, multiple vehicle thefts, possession of burglary tools and petty theft. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 2 year term vehicle theft. Coronado was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 28, 2011. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in April 2012 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Coronado qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for petty theft with prior conviction is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, sex offender status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
